

Questions based on the class “Name that Mechanical Violation”

1. The maximum allowable distance that a duct connector can be used as a duct is 8 Feet.

True    False

2. Saddle Valves are not permitted to be used on a Water line to a Humidifier.

True    False

3. The minimum allowable distance in front of furnace from an obstruction for servicing is 30 inches.

True    False

4. Mechanical Inspectors are not required to ensure the structural safety of a building or structure when Mechanical systems are being installed?

True    False

5. When inspecting a residential kitchen hood fan, it is important to have the duct shroud removed.

True    False

6. A furnace or rooftop HVAC in a commercial building in not required to have the fan on and running during the hours of operation of the business.

True    False

7. Sections of the Michigan Mechanical code book can be applied to an inspection of a residential dwelling?.

True    False

8. Heat Plans are required for Residential Dwellings.

True    False

9. Outside ventilation air may be brought into a joist space and be connected to the return air blocker.

True    False

10. NFPA 96 requires the cleaning of Commercial Kitchen Hoods and Grease Ducts.

True    False